

Egelston Township Planning Commission Meeting Code of Conduct

- 1) All questions and comments must be directed to the chairperson.
- 2) All committee members will refrain from conversing with the public during public comments, (except for the chairperson to answer questions or to keep the meeting on track).
- 3) Any citizen may address the commission (1) time per each public comment and (1) time during each individual public hearing.
- 4) All comments must be directed to the Planning Commission and not to other citizens attending the meeting.
- 5) There shall not be any personal attacks on any Planning Commissioner allowed.
- 6) There shall not be any personal attacks by the Planning Commission members toward any citizens attending the meeting.

If any of these rules are violated a warning will be given by the chairperson. After a second occurrence the chair has the right to ask the resident to leave the meeting. If the poor conduct continues the chairperson has the right to pause the meeting until local law enforcement is called and the person disrupting the meeting is removed from the meeting.
